Kate's Club empowers children facing life after the death of a parent or sibling. We build healing communities through recreational and therapeutic group programs, education, and advocacy. We recognize that, according to the National Alliance for Grieving Children, an estimated 1 in 20 children will experience the death of a parent or sibling before they reach the age of 18. We know that the effects of grief, coupled with the family disruptions that accompany it, are often devastating for a child. At Kate's Club, we offer a suite of time-tested therapeutic and recreational programs that help grieving children reduce isolation, develop peer support systems, and improve emotional health and positive coping skills.

Testimonial

"Our relationship with Kate's Club has raised the bar on how our firm will partner with organizations in the future. It wasn't just about us giving them money. It was truly a partnership, allowing us to connect, participate, and see first-hand the positive impact our contributions were making. We are grateful to have the opportunity to support such a well-run and meaningful organization." Christina Graham, Partner, MMM, LLP
